Dear Sir's:-

Replying to your favor of I8th. ins
I enclose my want list and will be obliged if you will mark over each date that you can furnish, the price of the coin and return list to me and I can then see what I can afford to purshase.

You forgot to enclose the list of Frac-

Dear Sirs: I mailed you postal to acknowledge receipt of coin. I now enclose my check for those I have selected, which I have checked in pencil, while those I have inched with blue pencil, I would like to retain, but cannot now or for perhaps three weeks, afford to pay for. Not that they add much to my outlay, but because I have taken & pay for what I most desire.

Shall I take out those marked with blue pencil and return balance, or return all until such time as you

2 can send me the balance of those on my list.[2]

Have you good but less expensive coins of same dates as those selected, because I can't afford to be a "fancy" collector of fancy coins.

I should like to have this list of yours returned to me and also price list (description) of Fractional Currency, as previously requested, also send me 100 of the 1/2 dollar size of your coin envelopes.

Awaiting reply, I am

Dear Sirs:

I have selected eight more coins, amounting to $4.20, for which I enclose my check and I have checked up the coins I return by express to-morrow and find them correct.

I regret your not sending me the envelopes, as I wished to pay for them in this remittance.

If you will refer to my want list and check off on it the coins I have bought of you, you will see what I still require, but I cannot afford such fine specimens & high prices.

2 - Here, if you can send me less expensive ones for examination, please do so.

You need not send $100. ones or 1/2 cents or cents running over $2.- I mention this, so you can gauge my purse.
